

Center for Global Journalism and Communication

Join our update blog and get our latest on research, events and journalism critique. No charge. Not now. Not later.

REGISTER ME FOR UPDATES

MORE INFO ON SIGNING UP AS MEMBER

KICK-OFF PRESENTATION : March 16th, 2021

ABOUT US

PROJECTS

UPDATES

EVENTS

Center for Global Journalism and Comm

Join our update blog and get our latest on research, events and journalism critique. No charge. Not now. Not later.

REGISTER ME FOR UPDATES

MORE INFO ON SIGNING UP AS MEM

Welcome round

THIS PRESENTATION:

Oddgeir: About GjC:

THE INVITATION:

A center

A network

A resource

Abit: THE IDEA: Journalism paradigms

<https://www.globaljournalism.community/>

The GjC invitation:

A Center

A Network

A Resource

THE GENERAL LENS RESEARCHING JOURNALISM PARADIGMS

PARADIGMS IN JOURNALISM RESEARCH

How does research address and incorporate shifts in paradigms?

What is a scientific paradigm?

Why make it central to GJC?

Paradigms in journalism research:

- Methodologies
- "Grand theories"
- Subject thematic diversity

JOURNALISM PARADIGMS

WHAT DETERMINES NEWS?

- Structure/action • relations of ownership • production • socialization • routines • news values
- Encoding events: Dispositional and episodic frames
- Embedded world views: Cascading frames - meta narratives
- Positioning: Hegemony and maneuvering
- (Shifting) relations of power

Edited by Chris Peters and Marcel Broersma

RETHINKING JOURNALISM

Trust and participation in a transformed news landscape

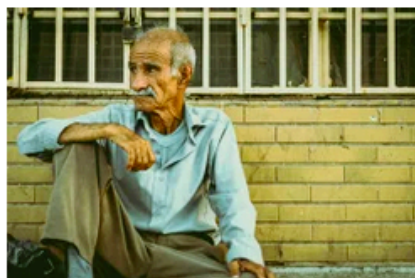

Key themes

Center for Global Journalism and Communication

Transition Journalism

Troubled Pasts

DIGITAL TRANSFORMATIONS

Journalism Education

TRANSITION JOURNALISM

Transitional society?

Fragile polities?

Agonistic governance?

Emergent journalism paradigm?

Edited by Chris Peters and Marcel Broersma

Digital transformation

Society's digital change

Journalism and the internet

Accelerated information flows

Public sphere fragmentation

New media monopolies

Emergent non-Western theories?

RETHINKING JOURNALISM

Investment and participation in a transformed news landscape

TROUBLED PASTS

Human rights atrocities

Narrative justice

Rising identity crises

Ethnicized histories

Collective memorization

Connecting to digital heritage

TRUTH AND FACT

Reporting conflict in the current media eco system: New journalism paradigms requested

Normative theory – alternative non-Western: News, objectivity and emergent democracy

Media ubiquity: Knowledge and accuracy in a post-truth world – information overflow

Echo chambers in the local and global media eco system: Rituals of tribal communication

Visions of a “de-Westernized” research discourse? Re-theorizing, re-conceptualizing

The invitation

- Become a member
- Become a contributor
- Engage your MA students
- Collaborate on new proposals
- Launch and share your research
- Collaborate on educational materials

Mulatu Alemayehu

Assistant professor, Addis Ababa University, Ethiopia

Senior journalist, PhD from Addis Ababa University and currently completing the PhD

Terje Skjerdal

Associate Professor, NLA University College

On the faculty of the Global Journalism MA program at NLA and chief architect behind collaborative projects

Oddgeir Tveiten

Professor, Agder University

Co-founder and current leader. Department of global development and planning at UiA. Also adjunct professor NLA University College, research member of several journalism projects.

Abit Hoxha

Senior researcher, Agder University

Co-founder and center coordinator. Associated with the RePast and Worlds of Journalism projects.

Carol Azungi Dralega

Associate professor, NLA University College

Project researcher, with a particular interest in game based learning.

Kenneth Andresen

Professor, Agder University

Project researcher, associated with the RePast and Worlds of Journalism projects.

ABOUT US

PROJECTS

UPDATES

EVENTS

Center for Global Journalism and Communication

Join our update blog and get our latest on research, events and journalism critique. No charge. Not now. Not later.

REGISTER ME FOR UPDATES

MORE INFO ON SIGNING UP AS MEMBER

THANK YOU

Presentation and working paper will be made available
on the website

Oddgeir Tveiten

<https://www.globaljournalism.community/>